

Second trip added due to popular demand!

'A DATE WITH MILLIE' on the Conway Scenic Railroad

North Conway, NH to Redstone (Saco River bridge), Frankenstein Trestle & Return with RDC-1 #23 "Millie"

Second Section: Sunday, June 10, 2018

Join Mass Bay Railroad Enthusiasts for a photo special train excursion on the Conway Scenic Railroad, including all operable trackage of the "Redstone Branch" and a ride over the famed Frankenstein Trestle. Due to popular demand, we've added a "second section" of this excursion for Sunday, June 10. The Sunday trip will operate on the same schedule and itinerary as the sold-out Saturday trip.

We'll depart from the landmark CSRR North Conway station at 11:00 AM. We'll start by heading north to Mountain Junction, where we'll reverse direction and head east on the former Maine Central Mountain Division track, passing scenic Pudding Pond on our way to the Saco River bridge, including a mile of newly-restored track on the ex-Maine Central Mountain Division.

After a photo stop at the end of the operable track at the Saco River, we reverse direction again and return to Mountain Junction, where a meet with Conway Scenic's morning Bartlett train may provide another photo opportunity. We'll continue west through Bartlett and Notchland to the historic Frankenstein Trestle, where we'll have a photo opportunity from a vantage point at the west end of the trestle. We'll then head back to North Conway for a scheduled arrival at approximately 4:00 PM. Photo stops and runbys are planned throughout the day as time and operating conditions allow.
